ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

This matter came before the undersigned for an initial appearance and arraignment hearing on July 1, 2015. David Jennings, Assistant United States Attorney, was present representing the government. Attorney James Varner was present on behalf of the defendant. The defendant was also present. The defendant waived and reserved the right to ask for a detention hearing and signed the appropriate waiver.

The defendant is scheduled for a jury trial on March 1, 2016 at 9:00 a.m., before the Honorable Thomas A. Varlan, Chief United States District Judge. The defendant stated that she understands that she will remain in custody pending the hearing. For good cause shown, the defendant's request not to contest, and to waive the detention hearing is hereby GRANTED.

It is therefore ORDERED that:

(1) Defendant be detained.;

- (2) Defendant be committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;
- (3) Defendant be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel; and
- (4) On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which the defendant is confined deliver the defendant to a United States marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with any court proceeding.
